

State of New York
STATE BOARD OF ELECTIONS

THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY ELECTION IN NEW YORK STATE: SUMMARY OF THE BALLOT ACCESS REQUIREMENTS

Primary Date: February 5, 2008

The purpose of the presidential primary is to select delegates to a national convention of a political party. The provisions for the delegate selection process are found in the Election Law, the rules of the party and Chapter 228 of the Laws of 2007.

DEMOCRATIC PLAN

The Democratic Presidential Primary is really a “dual primary.” Candidates for president run against each other in a statewide primary, and delegates and alternate delegates run in each congressional district. Delegates and alternates are either committed to a particular presidential candidate or uncommitted. EL § 2-122-a

REPUBLICAN PLAN

The selection of delegates and alternate delegates to the Republican Party’s national convention is determined by a statewide primary election of candidates for the office of President of the United States. The names of delegates and alternate delegates do not appear on the ballot. Additional at-large delegates may also be selected by the state committee. EL § 2-122-b.

BALLOT ACCESS REQUIREMENTS

REPUBLICAN PLAN
Presidential candidates shall be eligible to appear on the primary election ballot by any of the following three manners:
Matching Funds Eligible EL § 2-122-b (3)(a)	Any candidate who has been certified as eligible to receive presidential primary matching fund payments or any candidate who meets the eligibility criteria regarding matchable contributions, regardless of whether such candidate actually applied for such matching fund payments, may request, to the State Board of Elections that such candidate appear on the ballot. Requests must be filed by December 11, 2007.
Nationally Known EL § 2-122-b (3)(b)	Such candidate shall be eligible to appear on the ballot only if the Republican commissioners of the State Board of Elections, determines that the person is a nationally known and recognized candidate and the candidacy of such person for the party nomination for president is generally and seriously advocated or recognized according to reports in the national or state news media. Requests must be filed from October 16, 2007 to December 11, 2007.
Designating Petition EL § 2-122-b (3)(c)	Presidential candidates may file a designating petition with signatures of 5000 or five percent, whichever is less, of the enrolled Republicans to appear on the primary election ballot. There is no geographic distribution requirement for signatures as with other statewide petitions. The first date to sign petitions is October 30, 2007. Petitions must be filed with the State Board of Elections from December 3, 2007 to December 6, 2007.

DEMOCRATIC PLAN
Presidential Candidates EL § 2-122-a (2)(3)(4)(5).	Candidates must file petitions with 5,000 signatures of enrolled Democrats There is no geographic distribution requirement for signatures as with other statewide petitions. The first date to sign petitions is October 30, 2007. Petitions must be filed with the State Board of Elections from December 3, 2007 to December 6, 2007. A statewide "uncommitted petition" with 5,000 signatures will create the opportunity for congressional district delegates to appear on the ballot as uncommitted to any presidential candidate. The first date to sign petitions is October 30, 2007. Petitions must be filed with the State Board of Elections from December 3, 2007 to December 6, 2007.
District Delegates and Alternate Delegates EL § 2-122-a (6)(7)	Delegates and alternates must file petitions signed by either 500 enrolled Democrats within the congressional district or signed by 0.5% of the enrolled Democrats in the congressional district, whichever is less. All of the delegates and alternates on a petition must be pledged to the same presidential candidate or they must all be uncommitted. The petition must indicate the name of the presidential candidate the delegate or alternate is supporting, or that he or she is running as uncommitted. Petitions containing the names of more than one delegate or alternate must be equally divided between the sexes. The first date to sign petitions is October 30, 2007. Petitions must be filed with the State Board of Elections or the local board, whichever applies, from December 3, 2007 to December 6, 2007.
Delegate Certificate of Candidacy EL § 2-122-a (7)(a)	Delegates must also file a certificate of candidacy with the Democratic State Committee, giving their name, address, gender, presidential candidate preference and district.
Over Designations EL § 2-122-a (7)(c)	If the number of delegates designated exceeds the number allowed for the district, presidential candidates may choose those delegates they wish to appear on the ballot as supporting them. Delegates rejected by the presidential candidate will not appear on the ballot.
Withdrawal of Presidential Candidate EL § 2-122-a (6)(g) (7)(c)	If a candidate for president withdraws, or elects not to have his or her name appear next to any delegate, the delegates pledged to that candidate will not appear on the ballot.

SELECTION OF DELEGATES

REPUBLICAN PLAN
Number of Delegates NYS Republican Party Rule Art. XI Rule 1	87 delegates and 87 alternate delegates will be selected - 3 from each of the state's 29 congressional districts. Additional at-large delegates will be selected by the New York Republican State Committee.
EL § 2-122-b (4)(a)	The Republican Party shall certify to the State Board of Elections, at least eight weeks (12/11/2007) prior to the winter primary election, the number of delegates to which such party is entitled to. Such number may exclude at-large delegates selected by the state committee of such party in accordance with the rules of the national committee of such party.
Selection of Delegates EL § 2-122-b (4)(b)(c)	A presidential candidate must file a complete slate of delegates with the State Board of Elections no later than five weeks (12/31/2007) before the winter primary election. Delegates and alternate delegates must be enrolled members of the political party. The State Board of Elections shall review each such slate, and if it determines that such slate is not complete or is not otherwise in compliance, it shall notify the candidate of any defects and provide such candidate with no less than five business days to cure any defects. Delegates and alternate delegates, other than at-large delegates selected by the state committee, shall be allocated to the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes at the primary election.

Number of Delegates The 2008 Delegate Selection Plan of the NYS Democratic Party Part III Section A 3	There will be a total of one hundred and fifty one (151) pledged delegates and 25 pledged alternate delegates elected from Congressional Districts in the Primary or, if no one is so elected, then in post-Primary caucuses comprised of members of the State Committee representing that District. Additional pledged, pledged-at-large and unpledged delegates and alternates will be selected as outlined below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the eighteen (18) members of the Democratic National Committee from New York, and twenty-four (24) Democratic Members of Congress, one (1) Democratic Governor and one (1) Distinguished Party Leader shall be automatic unpledged delegates; - the state convention shall elect 30 pledged delegates who qualify as party leaders or elected officials; - the state convention shall elect 4 unpledged delegates; and - the state convention shall elect 51 pledged-at-large delegates and 14 pledged-at-large alternate delegates.
Selection of Delegates The 2008 Delegate Selection Plan of the NYS Democratic Party Part III Section B 8 & 9	In the Presidential candidate contest, a Presidential candidate must receive a threshold percentage of at least fifteen (15%) of the votes cast for all Presidential candidates according to the vote they receive in a Congressional District. If only one Presidential candidate reaches the threshold percent in a Congressional District, then that candidate shall be entitled to all district delegates and alternates in the Congressional District. In order to ensure equal division within each District, delegate positions will be assigned in Congressional Districts with an even number of delegates (A) first to the candidate for delegate who receives the highest vote total among those pledged to the Presidential candidate who receives the highest vote total in the district and (B) thereafter, alternating by gender, first to the next highest vote-getter among delegate candidates for the next highest vote-getting presidential preferences in descending order until all positions are assigned...

OTHER POLITICAL PARTIES IN NEW YORK STATE

Any political party in New York State may nominate a candidate for the offices of President and Vice-President. They may either nominate delegates to a national convention pursuant to either the Republican Plan or the Democratic Plan. They may also nominate candidates at a statewide convention or by filing designating petitions.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES

An independent candidate for president is someone who is running on a line other than an official party line. Petitions for independent candidates must include the names of the presidential and vice-presidential candidates, as well as the names of person(s) running for the electoral college. The petition for president must contain the names of at least one but not more than 29 candidates for electors.

Independent petitions for president must contain 15,000 signatures. At least 100 signatures must come from each of 15 congressional districts. Election Law §6-142(1). Each candidate named in an independent petition for president is required to file an acknowledged acceptance of the nomination no later than the third day after the last day to file the petition. Election Law §6-146(1).

If there are 10 or more pages in a petition, there must be a cover sheet. A multi-volume petition requires a cover sheet for each volume. 5 NYCRR §6215.

WRITE-IN CANDIDATES

To run as a write-in candidate for president, you are required to file a certificate of candidacy with the State Board of Elections no later than the third Tuesday prior to the general election. The certificate must be signed by the presidential candidate and must contain the name and address of the presidential candidate; the name and address of any vice-presidential candidate, and a signed certificate of acceptance from such candidate; and the name and address of at least one, but not more than 29 candidates for elector, with an acceptance certificate and pledge of support signed by each such candidate for elector.
